THAT $10 bill that Mr. A. T. Summers changed for a stranger on Saturday is not a counterfeit, as stated by the Review this morning. It was the pure stuff, and was received by J. MR. THOMAS LEE was called to Monaca yesterday to prosecute a man named Nibault for assaulting his sister with a shotgun. While in the town Mr. Lee was informed that about all hopes of Mr. Hedges recovery from her attack of smallpox are given up. Her child, born three days ago, has the disease and it will die.

A FAIR audience greeted the appearance of the Rogers' "My Sweetheart" combination at the opera house last night. The life of the entertainment, in which there is a great deal of love-making and Abbott kissing and hugging, were the two renowned specialists, the dancing Minnie Palmer and the talented German comedian, B. E. Graham. These two were on the stage most of the time, and sang and danced so well that they were recalled repeatedly. The support was very good. Mr. Hawkins as Joe Shottwell, the broken down sport, bringing down the house and paralyzing the gods in the elevation, while he conversed in the gambler's lingo with the mystified Tim. The male portion of the audience seemed to "catch on" to the laconic words of Joe quite readily, and not a few ladies looked inquisitively at their escorts and wanted to know why they were so thoroughly tickled. As a whole the entertainment was quite pleasing.

Justice Albert Assailed.
Yesterday while in James Milligan's place on the Levee, Justice Albert was assailed by Fred Depe, who was under the influence of liquor at the time. Mr. Albert, who is one of our old citizens, well along in years, was struck twice by Depe with his open hand, and although Officer Acker was standing near by in the same room he refused to arrest Depe without a warrant, though he was commanded to do so by Mr. Albert, as he tried to get away from his assailant. Finally Officer Brockway arrested Depe, and this morning the prisoner pleaded guilty to the assault before Justice Lowry, and was fined $25 and costs. Some time ago Justice Albert had a collision against Depe, and $3 of the amount he, the Justice, paid out of his own pocket to assure, the account. The Justice says Depe has frequently abused him but never before attempted to assault him. Depe is generally severely censured for assaulting Mr. Albert, and Acker's conduct is also severely criticised. Mr. Albert was not seriously injured, though the open-handed blows were painful. He was struck first on the left cheek bone and then under the left ear. It will now be in order to investigate Mr. Acker's conduct as a policeman.

A $2,500 Sale.
The old Renshaw property, on the northeast corner of Broadway and Condit streets, in the first ward, was sold yesterday by Kantman & Randolph to Mr. James W. Wood, late of Kentucky, who will locate in Decatur with his family. The price paid was $2500. The property belonged to Messrs. Jack and Ben Renshaw.

For Overseer.
Mr. William T. Dillon—announced to-day as a candidate for road overseer in District No. 1, subject to the action of the Republican convention. Mr. Dillon has served in this responsible position during the past two years to the general satisfaction of the people. He has proven himself a splendid overseer, and if nominated, will be triumphantly elected.

Temperance Talk.
There was a good crowd at the tabernacle last night to hear Mr. Fanning's second talk on temperance. The speaker was presented by Capt. Post, who took occasion to make a short speech. Mr. Fanning is a very entertaining and forcible talker, and stands up strongly for prohibition as the best means of wiping out whisky. He is also in favor of moral suasion, but he thinks that without legal means moral suasion will prove ineffective. Speaking again to-night. All are invited. Admission free every night.

The Miss Morgan Reading.
On Thursday evening next the literary treat at the opera house will be the dramatic readings to be given by the talented elocutionist, Miss Anna Morgan, of Springfield, who will appear here under the auspices of the Decatur Guards. The proceeds of the entertainment will be for the benefit of the Industrial School for Homeless Girls, at Evanston. Miss Morgan is one of the most pleasing and gifted readers on the rostrum. The entertainment will be varied by music by the Pleinides orchestra, vocal selections by a quartette and piano solos. Admission 50 cents; no extra charge for reserved seats.

That Receptiveness.
The following paragraph from the Chicago Evening Journal of the 21st inst., is the latest about the Midland middle:
"The arguments in relation to the application of the Paris and Decatur Railroad Company for the appointment of a receiver for the Illinois Midland Railway were completed to-day before Judge Drummond, and the court has now under consideration whom he shall appoint to the position."
The P. & D. Company, represent the "east end" stockholders who are opposed in their efforts to throw the Midland into the hands of the Vandallia people by the "west end" stockholders led by Mr. Dillon, of Atlanta, Ill.

A Democratic Caucus.
Last evening in the grand jury room about 25 democrats of Decatur township met in caucus and talked over the feasibility of calling a convention to nominate candidates for township officers on a straight-out democratic ticket. Mr. Joseph Mills was chosen chairman of the meeting. About everybody in the room had something to say, and the general expression was that a convention should be called. Accordingly it was arranged that the democratic nominating convention will be held at the court house on Thursday evening, March 30th. The primary meetings in the four districts to select delegates will be held on Tuesday evening, the 28th inst.

Directors Elected.
A business meeting of the stock holders of the Cerro Gordo Short Line Railroad company was held at Cerro Gordo on Tuesday, when the following named directors were elected for the term placed opposite their names:
H. O. Gartin, one year; T. W. Harris, one year; W. L. Pitts, two years, all of Cerro Gordo.
J. H. Crocker, three years; C. F. Emery, three years, both of Maroa.
T. T. Rhoades, one year; J. K. Barlin, two years; J. R. Cunningham, one year, all of Charleston.

It is the purpose of this company to build a broad gauge railroad from Charleston northwestward through Cerro Gordo to Maroa, in this county. The enterprise will have the substantial support of the people along the line of the proposed route.

The Muldoons Saturday Night.
There will be great fun at the opera house on Saturday night, when the Hyde & Behman Muldoon Blunders Combination will hold the boards. The programme for the evening will embrace the following interesting features: The Hogan Brothers, the Kickapoo dancers, and Ethiopian humorists; Little Camilla, a splendid child song and dance artist; Kelly and Ryan, the original Bards of Tara, two very comical Milkenian sketch artists; Miss Annie Boyd, vocalist and mimic; Morris and Field, Teutonic musicians, burlesquers and tumblers; Miss Lida Gardner, skipping rope dancer, and vocalist; the Olympia Quartette, consisting of Keough, Randall, Sullivan and Mack; and MacVickers and Rodgers, sketch artists, impersonators and vocalists; and best and funniest of all, the absurd comedy, "Muldoon's Blunders," in which the entire company take part, and which is appropriately described as a farce in one act and a hundred and one laughs. Popular prices, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

Formal Opening To-day of Mr. John Irwin's New Store in Post Office Block.
A REPUBLICAN reporter this forenoon was among the throng of people who visited Mr. John Irwin's new store in post-office block, and was shown through the attractive establishment which is filled with what the proprietor declares, without fear of successful contradiction, to be the finest, most complete and best selected stock of ready-made clothing, hats, caps, trunks, gent's furnishing goods and notions generally, displayed in any city in Illinois outside of Chicago. This stock of goods, which was selected with special care by Mr. Irwin himself, is certainly one of the best those who looked through the new store to-day, have yet seen exhibited in this city, and those wishing good goods at reasonable prices will do well to give the genial John a call at the "White Front."

A LITTLE CHAT.
Said Mr. Irwin: "My stock, as you will observe, stands in where other dealers leave off. Here's a man's fine suit that is made and trimmed splendidly throughout, that I sell for $12, and here's my best suit, that I sell for $30, or I can give you a fine Prince Albert coat with vest for $25, and here's a diagonal coat and vest of same pattern—none better or finer made in Decatur—for $18. And you will observe, also, that all these goods, and there are stacks of them all about you, as you can plainly see, have my name under the collar of the coats, which means that the suits are just what they are represented—the finest and best made goods ever brought to Decatur. They are made up by merchant tailors of experience, and as you see there is finish and shape, and style to each garment. And here are the very latest kinks in hats, with John Irwin's name in the crown of each, and here's the latest yet, the "Jack Haverly's Own" hat with a complimentary ticket fastened in the side, which will admit the wearer when presented at the door of either of Jack's shows in any city to the entertainment then in progress. It's a dandy hat and I anticipate selling piles of them. And let me show you my Cosmopolitan dollar shirts, these Wilson Bros' colored shirts, this full stock of gent's real Balbriggan stockings, ranging in price from 25 cents to $2.50 per pair, and here are silk stockings worth from 83 to 84 per pair. Here are the best silk handkerchiefs, the most stylish linen collars and cuffs, and a full line of notions."

Such in brief is a short statement of the elegant stock of goods with which Mr. Irwin begins business under the most auspicious circumstances. He also takes orders for suits of all grades and styles, which will be made up perfectly and a fit guaranteed every time.

Mr. Irwin has lived in our midst for many years, and is one of the most genial of our citizens. For a long time he was head book-keeper for J. R. Race & Co., and his experience while in that wholesome and retail establishment, will be of value to him now that he has branched out in business for himself. He has a splendid location, and the "White Front" is so nicely arranged inside that it is no trouble at all to show goods.

LOVELY BOUQUETS.
As a fragrant memento of the first call, Mr. Irwin presented each visitor with a lovely bouquet of cut flowers for the button-hole, and scores of people are wearing them to-day. They all came from the "White Front" store, which will be brightly illuminated this evening for the reception of the public.

Mr. Baer Going to Chicago.
This morning Mr. S. T. Baer, of Cleveland, arrived in the city. He will succeed our good friend Mr. Anthony Baer in the management of the Decatur Tank Line Company, and we give him a cordial welcome to our beautiful and bustling city. Mr. Baer will leave Decatur on Saturday night for Chicago where he will take charge of the Standard Oil Company's branch establishment in that city, which does an immense business in the Garden City and the northwest.

While we regret Mr. Baer's departure, we congratulate him on his deserved promotion to a more lucrative and responsible position. During his stay in Decatur he has proven himself an energetic and thorough business man, and has made hosts of friends in this community who will gladly welcome him back.

Stolen Dresses.
Monday night Miss Nellie Rockwell and Miss Sadie Goodpasture, domestics at the Commercial Hotel, had about $60 worth of dresses stolen from their rooms at the hotel. The young women appeared before Justice Curtis on yesterday and caused a warrant to be issued authorizing Constable McWhinney to search the room occupied by Mrs. Mary Hostetter, on South Main street, the object being to find the stolen dresses if possible. Mrs. Hostetter, it was alleged, was the last person seen in the rooms of the young women, and it was alleged that she was the guilty person. The constable searched the Hostetter room, but failed to find the property stolen. The sufferer by the raid of the sneak thief, whoever he or she may be, think they have discovered another clever which, if properly followed up, will result in apprehending the robber.

Delightfully Pleasant Tin Wedding Surprise on Broadway Last Night.
MARRIED:—At the residence of the bride's parents, in the city of Albany, N. Y., by Rev. John Love, Jr., on March 20, 1882, Mr. WILLIAM DUMONT and Miss ROSA CASTLE.
Yesterday was the tenth anniversary of this matrimonial event, and last evening the "tin wedding" of Mr. and Mrs. Dumont was made the occasion of a delightful celebration at their comfortable home on the corner of Broadway and East North streets. It was a genuine surprise, and was planned by Mrs. C. O. Platt, Mrs. C. H. Brown and Miss Jessie Stevens, who arranged that the couple should take tea with Mr. and Mrs. Platt while they took possession of the Dumont dwelling and prepared for the reception and entertainment of the invited company. Everything being in readiness, Mr. and Mrs. Dumont were summoned home on a plausible pretext, and as they entered wholly ignorant of what awaited them, they were received with a serenade on tin instruments and a hearty welcome by Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Platt, Misses Nola Large, Hattie Hardy, Alice Priest, Cora King, Meta Batteiger, Rosa Jackson, Jessie Stevens and Messrs. Chas. H. Tyler, Walter Baker, Ed. Jackson, Frank P. Roach, George Dodson and Frank H. Curtis. The affair was so nicely managed that the surprise was perfect and complete, and was therefore all the more enjoyable. The evening was devoted to pleasant chat, vocal and instrumental music, the discussion of a bountiful and tempting tin wedding repast, and dancing to music by the Decatur String Band, with Prof. Leonard as prompter. The REPUBLICAN offers its warmest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Dumont on reaching the 10th milestone in their matrimonial journey along the stream of life, and wishes for their continued happiness and prosperity.

Born, this morning, to Mr. and Mrs. John Latsbaugh, a girl. John, who is the general book-keeper for George Priest & Co., is happier than usual to-day.
Dr. Johns and W. C. Johns arrived home yesterday from Cairo. They report the land round about Cairo more or less inundated by water.
Hon. Jason Rogers will depart for Springfield this evening. The extra session of the legislature will convene to-morrow.
Hon. and Mrs. Winthrop Sargent, of Claremont, New Hampshire, who have been visiting relatives in this city since last December, departed for their eastern home yesterday.
Hon. W. T. Moffett, state senator, of this county, and Hon. H. D. Peters, editor of the Monticello Herald, were in the city to-day, and took their departure this evening for Springfield.
Dr. P. G. Gillett, Superintendent of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, and Mr. Capna, both of Jacksonville, are in the city on business. They are here to look at David Martin's free stone pavement and a fountain he has for sale.
Supt. Gastman, of the Decatur schools, visited Sullivan on Tuesday night, and delivered an address on school matters at the opera house in that town before a large audience of Sullivan people. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Sullivan public schools.
Springfield Journal, 21st: The juvenile classes of Prof. Fero's Dancing Academy will give a ball at the hall, on the evening of next Friday, in honor of Misses Ella and Edith Race, of Decatur, who are visiting Mr. John Wolgemuth and family. The older members of the school are extended a cordial invitation as they will be afforded a pleasant time after 9 o'clock p. m.

"Fra Diavolo."

This charming comic opera will be presented at the opera house next Monday evening by the Hess Acme Company, which numbers 60 people. Of this company a truthful exchange says:
It did not need the crisp wint'ry air of yesterday to bring out in strong force the lovers of comic opera. Mr. Hess's company had, last week, fairly established themselves as favorites in Charleston, and a crowded house at the Academy last evening opened what is sure to be a brilliant and profitable engagement. We have never had "Fra Diavolo" better sung here than last night, and certainly never nearly so well acted. The Bygones of Mr. Henry Feskes was a singularly pathetic and vigorous bit of acting and moved the audience deeply. The singing was excellent throughout, the fine chorus giving effect to the merry airs in which Miss Randall and Miss Elmer seemed to vie with each other. Mr. Mark Smith sang and acted admirably, the easy grace of his stage presence being one of the most pleasant features of the opera.
Admission 50 and 75 cents; reserved seats $1.

Your Potato Patch.

The "New York Burbank" and the "Blue Victor" are the coming potatoes for this section, and are excellent varieties for the table; good yielders, coming in earlier than the peachblow.
